Arlington ISD accepting applications for AISD Insider program

ARLINGTON, Texas, Aug. 1, 2011 – The Arlington Independent School District is accepting applications for the 2011-2012 class of AISD Insider. This program was created to give a group of parents and community members an in-depth look at the district. Once selected to the program, participants will learn more about the district's programs, services, and current challenges and opportunities at monthly meetings. At the conclusion of the program, graduates will become leaders and advocates for the AISD.

"We all play a part in ensuring that every student receives the best education possible. This program provides participants the opportunity to get a behind-the-scenes look at the district and to use that knowledge to become advocates for our students," Superintendent Jerry McCullough said. "I invite you to join the AISD in providing our students with a top-notch education by participating in the third class of AISD Insider."

Applications to participate in the 2011-2012 AISD Insider class are being accepted now. Online applications are available at aisd.net/insider, or those interested in applying can call 682-867-7342 to request a copy of the application. Applications must be received by Sept. 2 to be considered.
