Lamar High School Head Football Coach Named

ARLINGTON, Texas, March 2, 2010 – Trent Fuller has been named the new head football coach for the Lamar Vikings.

Fuller started his teaching career at Coppell High School in 1999. He taught world geography and coached football and basketball. He was the passing coordinator and coached quarterbacks, receivers and defensive backs. In 2005, he moved to Colleyville Heritage High School, teaching world geography and serving as the quarterback coach and track coach.

Fuller came to the AISD in 2006. At Bowie High School, he taught world geography and was the football offensive coordinator and the JV soccer coach. In that time, Bowie has had the four best seasons in school history with a 41-11 record. Fuller holds a bachelor's degree from Emporia State University.
