OFFICE OF:
DIRECTOR OF PURCHASING

Bidders and Vendors:

The Board of Trustees of the Arlington Independent School District will receive sealed bids in the office of the Director of Purchasing, 1203 West Pioneer Parkway, Arlington, Texas, as per attached specifications.

The Arlington Independent School District agrees to use diligent efforts to purchase all goods and services from businesses within the boundaries of the Arlington Independent School District whenever such goods and services are comparable in availability, quality and price. The district encourages contractors, in performing the contract, to implement the same policies.

The Arlington Independent School District awards all bids in accordance with Texas Education Code 44.031.

The Arlington Independent School District reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any formality or irregularity and to make the award of the contract in the best interest of the Arlington Independent School District.

The use of manufacturers' names and models is for description only and is not restrictive.

Literature on items bid is desirable and samples may be required.

Any item which does not perform or meet tests as specified or claimed by the seller will be placed at no cost to the school district. All discounts shall be listed on the bid form. Payment will be made only after satisfactory delivery and/or installation. Transfer or assignment of contracts by the seller is prohibited.

You may bid on any or all items, but please bid by item, using the attached forms for your proposal.

In submitting your bid, please mark on the outside of the envelopes BID NUMBER 10-07

The bid must be in the office of the Director of Purchasing no later than: 2:00 P.M. JULY 21, 2009.
ALL BID PRICES MUST BE F.O.B. ARLINGTON

Thank you for your response to this bid.

Sincerely,

Betty Knox
Director of Purchasing

List account number(s) here (optional)
Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

SUSPENSION OR DEBARMENT CERTIFICATE

Non-Federal entities are prohibited from contracting with or making subawards under covered transactions to parties that are suspended or debarred or whose principals are suspended or debarred. Covered transactions include procurement for goods or services equal to or in excess of $100,000.00. Contractors receiving individual awards for $100,000.00 or more and all subrecipients must certify that the organization and its principals are not suspended or debarred.

By submitting this offer and signing this certificate, the bidder :

- Certifies that the owner/operator has not been convicted of a felony except as indicated on separate attachment to this offer, in accordance with Sec. 44.034, Texas Education Code, and
- Certifies that no suspension or disbarment is in place, which would preclude receiving a federally funded contract under the Federal OMB, A-102, Common Rule (____.36)

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Effective January 1, 2006, Chapter 176 of the Local Government Code requires a person who contracts or seeks to contract with the Arlington Independent School District for the sale or purchase of property, goods, or services to file a conflict of interest questionnaire with the District. The questionnaire must be filed no later than the seventh business day after the date that the person: (1) begins contract discussions or negotiations with the District or (2) submits to the District a response to a request for proposal or bid, correspondence, or another writing related to a potential agreement with the District.

An updated conflict of interest questionnaire must be filed no later than September 1 of each year in which the person: (1) has begun contract discussions or negotiations with the District or (2) submits to the District an application, response to a request for proposals or bids, correspondence or another writing related to a potential agreement with the District; and (3) the seventh business day after the date on an event that would make a statement in the questionnaire incomplete or inaccurate. The updated questionnaire is not required if the person has filed an updated questionnaire on or after June 1, but before September 1 of that year.

It is the vendor's responsibility to interpret the requirements of Chapter 176 of the Local Government Code.

The conflict of interest questionnaire MUST be completed AND SUBMITTED on-line at: <http://www.aisd.net/conflict>

The District will post all conflict of interest questionnaires on its website.
