All new Reflections contest.

The PTA believes all children deserve a quality arts education and encourages students to pursue artistic expression through participation in its annual arts Reflections Program. The program offers students the opportunity to create works of art for fun and recognition. Students are encouraged to create and submit works of art in six areas: literature, musical composition, photography, the visual arts, dance choreography, and film/video. The theme for this year is Diversity Means. Only original works of art are accepted.

A consent form has to be submitted with each entry along with a student entry form. Prizes will be awarded to each grade level winner.

Due date for all entries is Monday, November 7, 2011. Entries may be turned into the office. For any questions, please go the PTA Reflections site or call Cynthia Stallins at 817-726-3220.

3rd Grade News

We are continuing our author's study. We have learned so many interesting things about Patricia Polacco's personal life and her writing style. She's a wonderful writer and did you know she is dyslexic and was bullied growing up?! Make sure you are asking your child to give you some more details about her life and her books. We completed our 1st curriculum assessments this past week--they were a challenge! We have been teaching test taking strategies that will help with any test and hopefully your child used these strategies. We will be going over the assessments in class to insure that everyone understands the expectations and strategies. Remember to keep reading and practicing those facts. In fact, only read and practice your facts on days that you eat!
