

The College Kickstart: Save the Date!

College Application Day 2026
Registration opens July 1

Join us for a College Application Drive designed to help you take action, access support and start your journey to college with confidence.

UTA application fee waivers for students who submit a UTA application at the event.

Whether you're exploring college options or finalizing your decisions, this is your moment to take the next step! Support will be provided to students applying to all colleges and universities.
