

2023-2024 South Davis Title 1 Campus Family Engagement Policy Principal Kalisse Kelly

682-867-3800* 2001 South Davis Blvd. Arlington TX 76013*

At South Davis Elementary, we believe in every child's ability to grow through engaging, high-quality instruction that meets their social, emotional, and academic needs. We value perseverance, character and innovative thinking. We celebrate the differences in others and ourselves through empowerment, encouragement and love. South Davis Bulldogs deserve kindness and the freedom to be their best selves.

Annual Title 1 Meeting

This year by September 30th, we will have an online Title I information for parents. Look for it at the Parent Information Night, and as a Class Dojo Event. Find out how attending a Title 1 school benefits you and your child.

Meetings, Information, Academic achievement

Meetings and information will be offered at different times and days and may be held through Class Dojo, Blackboard connect, text, email, phone, social media, or face to face.

The meetings and information will empower parents to support learning might cover topics such as:

- Registration and the Parent Self-Serve Portal
- Parent Empowerment Classes
- Creating strong school-parent relationships
- STAAR and other testing Information
- Parent Teacher Conferences
- important pick up, drop off, health or attendance information

As appropriate, and as health conditions allow, transportation and childcare may be provided. Information will go out in multiple languages to the extent possible. District and community resources can be found at the South Davis front office, counselor, and Parent Center. Please contact Diana Golestani, Title I Family Engagement Liaison for information. dgolesta@aisd.net The Parent Center, room 48, phone 682-867-3838
